The Tiny Hands Foundation, founded by Sarasota businessman and philanthropist Rod Khleif in 2001, leads several annual children's charitable initiatives that have benefited more than 45,000 community children and families in need. The Tiny Hands Foundation's annual charitable initiatives include:

Holiday Basket Brigade: Provides thousands of holiday gift baskets filled with food and Christmas toys to community children and families in need.

Back-to-School Backpack Brigade: Provides thousands of new backpacks filled with school supplies to community school children in need.

Teddy Bear Brigade: Provides thousands of teddy bears for community police department patrol cars to be given out by police officers to comfort children in distress.

Those who are interested in helping the Tiny Hands Foundation with the 2016 Holiday Basket Brigade can contact: Ron Trytek. $28 sponsors a local family. 100% of donations go towards gift baskets. Your generosity will be deeply appreciated. The Tiny Hands Foundation is a 501c3 charity and all donations are tax-deductible.
